

SPOTLIGHT

Greenwood native to partake in the 58th Presidential Inauguration

U.S. Army Staff Sgt. Nickolas Bryant, a Greenwood South Carolina native, was just named as a participant to support the 58th Presidential Inauguration.

The Greenwood High School graduate will be part of The Joint Task Force - National Capital Region, 58th Presidential Inauguration joint task force, which is charged with coordinating all military ceremonial support and Defense Support of Civil Authorities (DSCA) for the inaugural period.

Bryant said he is very excited and blessed to be chosen to help out during this historic event and that he hopes to share this experience with his hometown.

